Divine Intimacy, Ordinary Holiness

Through a programme of worship, teaching, silence and reflection based on a Benedictine monastic pattern

The Five-Day Community for Spiritual Formation aims to

- root spirituality in Christian faith and tradition
- provide opportunity for participation in community life
- form people for life in a changing world

Divine Intimacy, Ordinary Holiness will be explored in daily presentations by Gemma Simmonds: A sister of the Congregation of Jesus, Gemma is director of the Religious Life Institute in the UK and works as a Senior Lecturer in Pastoral Theology at the Margaret Beaufort Institute Cambridge. She is a trustee of the ecumenical Community of St. Anselm based at Lambeth Palace, London and a regular broadcaster on religious programmes. Gemma’s most recent book, The Way of Ignatius, was published by SPCK in 2018 and featured as the online Lent retreat for www.pray-as-you-go.org on Android and iOS apps.

Brian Thorne: Emeritus Professor of Counselling at the University of East Anglia, Norwich and a Lay Canon of Norwich Cathedral. For many years, Brian has been a beacon for the person-centred approach to counselling and life and also for the mystical experience of spirituality. He is the author of many books including: ‘Behold The Man’ (a study of the Passion and Crucifixion), ‘Infinitely Beloved’ (exploring divine intimacy). His commitment to both the person-centred approach and to his Christian faith makes him an exceptional figure in both the psychological and theological worlds.

The Five-Day Community for Spiritual Formation will cost £675 per person

This includes full board in single accommodation, daily teaching from internationally known speakers and full use of the facilities of Drumalis.

Gemma: Ordinary Holiness – Discovering What We Already Have

American Trappist monk and spiritual writer Thomas Merton wrote: ‘In prayer we discover what we already have [...] We already have everything but we don’t know it and don’t experience it. Everything has been given to us in Christ. All we need is to experience what we already possess’. During this week we will explore what it means to discover and experience what we already possess.

Brian: The risks of intimacy, human and divine

Intimacy with another human-being and with God are often seen as hugely desirable experiences. They are, however, threaded through with unexpected challenges and dangers to the extent that in our contemporary culture the fear of intimacy characterises many relationships and works against the creation of true community. It also leads to much hypocrisy and to a prevailing inauthenticity in both Church and society which provides fertile soil for deception and abuse.
